	COMP. LOWER LYT.
	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
	INFORMATION REPOR	т
OUNTR		• -
UBJEC	T Repercussions of Malenkov's Policy in Yugoslavia
LACE BY SO	ACQUIRED urce)
		DATE DISTR. /6 Feb 1954
ATE (OF INFO.)	NO. OF PAGES 1
	THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS IMPORMATION APPECTING THE NATIONAL DEPENSE OF THE UNITED STATES. BITMIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18 SECTIONS 783	NO. OF ENCLS.
	AND 784, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVEL- Lation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by Lab. The reproduction of this report is prohibited.	SUPP. TO
	THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION	REPORT NO.
	٦
		}
1.	A change of heart isw taking place in the Yugosl deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad feeling cau Yugoslay Communist leaders are having serious troub	le with the decentralization
2.	deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad itelling that Yugoslav Communist leaders are having serious troub of their economy which is to remain a planned economy designated as the people's property, the managerial the workers' councils composed of radical Communist to the government's soft policy towards the peasant not willing to set the wage levels in accordance with consumer goods policy. They demand that the living raised, as has been promised by Moscow to its Satel councils decided to distribute the surplus profits them in industrial expansion or municipal projects. In some cases, trying to persuade the workers to giventions often proved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with app who compose the Party cadres. They fear that with nationalization and collectivization they may lose acted 10/25. In the recently elected hodies there is	le with the decentralization my. In the various factories cadres are cooperating with elements in their opposition ry. The workers' councils are th the government's cheap standard of the workers be lites. In a number of cases the as bonuses instead of reinvesting Labor organizers have intervene ve up the bonus, but these inter- rehensions of the ex-partisans the present stagnation of the privileged status they won s a considerable stratum of
2.	deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad reeling that Yugoslav Communist leaders are having serious troub of their economy which is to remain a planned economy designated as the people's property, the managerial the workers' councils composed of radical Communist to the government's soft policy towards the peasant not willing to set the wage levels in accordance willing to set the wage levels in accordance willing raised, as has been promised by Moscow to its Satel councils decided to distribute the surplus profits them in industrial expansion or municipal projects. In some cases, trying to persuade the workers to giventions often proved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with apply who compose the Party cadres. They fear that with nationalization and collectivization they may lose after 1945. In the recently elected bodies there i radical Communists who oppose Tito's go slow policy radical socialization there are a considerable number.	le with the decentralization my. In the various factories cadres are cooperating with elements in their opposition ry. The workers' councils are the government's cheap standard of the workers be lites. In a number of cases the as bonuses instead of reinvesting Labor organizers have intervene ve up the bonus, but these inter- rehensions of the ex-partisans the present stagnation of the privileged status they won s a considerable stratum of Among these advocates of er of organized "Cominformists."
	deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad feeting data Yugoslav Communist leaders are having serious troub of their economy which is to remain a planned economy designated as the people's property, the managerial the workers' councils composed of radical Communist to the government's soft policy towards the peasant not willing to set the wage levels in accordance with consumer goods policy. They demand that the living raised, as has been promised by Moscow to its Satel councils decided to distribute the surplus profits them in industrial expansion or municipal projects. In some cases, trying to persuade the workers to giventions often proved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with approximation who compose the Party cadres. They fear that with nationalization and collectivization they may lose after 1945. In the recently elected bodies there in the communicate who empose Tito's go slow policy	see by the liberalization my. In the various factories cadres are cooperating with elements in their opposition ry. The workers' councils are the government's cheap standard of the workers be lites. In a number of cases the as bonuses instead of reinvesting Labor organizers have intervene ve up the bonus, but these inter- rehensions of the ex-partisans the present stagnation of the privileged status they won s a considerable stratum of Among these advocates of er of organized "Cominformists." Inded urban sectors of the Party in accordance with the intention slav relations. Malenkov's goslav Communists than Stalin's
2.	deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad feeling dat Yugoslav Communist leaders are having serious troub of their economy which is to remain a planned economy designated as the people's property, the managerial the workers' councils composed of radical Communist to the government's soft policy towards the peasant not willing to set the wage levels in accordance with consumer goods policy. They demand that the living raised, as has been promised by Moscow to its Satel councils decided to distribute the surplus profits them in industrial expansion or municipal projects. In some cases, trying to persuade the workers to giventions often proved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with apply who compose the Party cadres. They fear that with nationalization and collectivization they may lose after 1945. In the recently elected bodies there i radical Communists who oppose Tito's go slow policy radical socialization there are a considerable number and the moderates around Tito. This development is of the Malenkov government to normalize Soviet-Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugopolicy is in all respects so demand.	see by the life sectorisation my. In the various factories cadres are cooperating with elements in their opposition ry. The workers' councils are the government's cheap standard of the workers be lites. In a number of cases the as bonuses instead of reinvesting Labor organizers have intervene ve up the bonus, but these inter- rehensions of the ex-partisans the present stagnation of the privileged status they won s a considerable stratum of Among these advocates of er of organized "Cominformists." Inded urban sectors of the Party in accordance with the intention slav relations. Malenkov's goslav Communists than Stalin's f their own criticisms and the Cominform and Belgrade as a tito regime is not inclined to ms at being accepted by the Sovie , willing to support the Kremlin
2.	deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad leeting dad Yugoslav Communist leaders are having serious troub of their economy which is to remain a planned economy designated as the people's property, the managerial the workers' councils composed of radical Communist to the government's soft policy towards the peasant not willing to set the wage levels in accordance will consumer goods policy. They demand that the living raised, as has been promised by Moscow to its Satel councils decided to distribute the surplus profits them in industrial expansion or municipal projects. In some cases, trying to persuade the workers to giventions often proved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with approper who compose the Party cadres. They fear that with nationalization and collectivization they may lose after 1945. In the recently elected bodies there i radical Communists who oppose Tito's go slow policy radical socialization there are a considerable number of the Malenkov government to normalize Soviet-Yugo policy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugourse had been and they see in it a confirmation of the reestablishment, however, of relations between they had been before 1948, may not be expected. The change its alignment with Greece and Turkey, but all Government as a friendly but independent government.	see by the life sectorisation my. In the various factories cadres are cooperating with elements in their opposition ry. The workers' councils are the government's cheap standard of the workers be lites. In a number of cases the as bonuses instead of reinvesting Labor organizers have intervene ve up the bonus, but these inter- rehensions of the ex-partisans the present stagnation of the privileged status they won s a considerable stratum of Among these advocates of er of organized "Cominformists." Inded urban sectors of the Party in accordance with the intention slav relations. Malenkov's goslav Communists than Stalin's f their own criticisms and the Cominform and Belgrade as a tito regime is not inclined to ms at being accepted by the Sovie , willing to support the Kremlin
2.	deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad feeling to Yugoslav Communist leaders are having serious troub of their economy which is to remain a planned economy designated as the people's property, the managerial the workers' councils composed of radical Communist to the government's soft policy towards the peasant not willing to set the wage levels in accordance with consumer goods policy. They demand that the living raised, as has been promised by Moscow to its Satel councils decided to distribute the surplus profits them in industrial expansion or municipal projects. In some cases, trying to persuade the workers to giventions often proved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with approved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with approved to a compose the Party cadres. They fear that with nationalization and collectivization they may lose after 1945. In the recently elected bodies there i radical Communists who oppose Tito's go slow policy radical socialization there are a considerable number that may be a noticeable schism between the radical-minand the moderates around Tito. This development is of the Malenkov government to normalize Soviet-Yugo policy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugourse had been and they see in it a confirmation o objections. The reestablishment, however, of relations between they had been before 1946, may not be expected. The change its alignment with Greece and Turkey, but an Government as a friendly but independent government only when their own interests so demand.	see by the life sectorisation my. In the various factories cadres are cooperating with elements in their opposition ry. The workers' councils are the government's cheap standard of the workers be lites. In a number of cases the as bonuses instead of reinvesting Labor organizers have intervene ve up the bonus, but these inter- rehensions of the ex-partisans the present stagnation of the privileged status they won s a considerable stratum of Among these advocates of er of organized "Cominformists." Inded urban sectors of the Party in accordance with the intention slav relations. Malenkov's goslav Communists than Stalin's f their own criticisms and the Cominform and Belgrade as a tito regime is not inclined to ms at being accepted by the Sovie , willing to support the Kremlin
2.	deeper than the anti-Anglo-American bad reeling yugoslav Communist leaders are having serious troub of their economy which is to remain a planned economy designated as the people's property, the managerial the workers' councils composed of radical Communist to the government's soft policy towards the peasant not willing to set the wage levels in accordance with consumer goods policy. They demand that the living raised, as has been promised by Moscow to its Satel councils decided to distribute the surplus profits them in industrial expansion or municipal projects. In some cases, trying to persuade the workers to giventions often proved to be in vain. The workers' opposition is closely tied in with apply who compose the Party cadres. They fear that with nationalization and collectivization they may lose after 1945. In the recently elected bodies there i radical Communists who oppose Tito's go slow policy radical socialization there are a considerable numb. There is a noticeable schism between the radical-minand the moderates around Tito. This development is of the Malenkov government to normalize Soviet-Yugo policy is in all respects more acceptable to the Yugourse had been and they see in it a confirmation objections. The reestablishment, however, of relations between they had been before 1940, may not be expected. The change its alignment with Greece and Turkey, but all Government as a friendly but independent government only when their own interests so demand.	see by the life sectorisation my. In the various factories cadres are cooperating with elements in their opposition ry. The workers' councils are the government's cheap standard of the workers be lites. In a number of cases the as bonuses instead of reinvesting Labor organizers have intervene ve up the bonus, but these inter- rehensions of the ex-partisans the present stagnation of the privileged status they won s a considerable stratum of Among these advocates of er of organized "Cominformists." Inded urban sectors of the Party in accordance with the intention slav relations. Malenkov's goslav Communists than Stalin's f their own criticisms and the Cominform and Belgrade as a tito regime is not inclined to ms at being accepted by the Sovie , willing to support the Kremlin